

7521269394.txt

I support open Internet and I am disturbed by the lack of competition I see in the Internet Provider market place. It is a role of the US Gov to prevent monopolies in the consumer arena and I feel that the current lack of competition in my community has led to substandard service and inflated fees. Please exercise some oversight and resist the lobbying efforts of the TWC and COX advocates. Level the playing field through regulation or dismantling of the current monopolies.