

7521269501.txt

This bill benefits a handful of companies, and negatively affects most other Americans. Including a lot of other companies. And most citizens. So, don't side with a few executives who want to pad their paychecks. While they say this won't affect current internet speeds, these are also the people who say hey will at your house sometime between 1 and 8 PM...and still don't show.