

7521270497.txt

It is imperative that all users of the "internet" have equal access to content and that content providers have equal ability to transmit data/content. The internet should be considered a public good. Do not allow it to be monetized and stratified based upon ability to pay for preferential speed, access or content priority!