

7521270721.txt

Please don't allow corporations to pay for special privilege on internet connections. This will only serve to increase costs to end users, decrease competition and innovation, and transitively broaden the already disgusting income gap in this country. Thank you.