

7521271170.txt

To even consider this is an affront to American freedoms and stifles small business. There is really no way that cable companies can convince me that they will not use this as a way to squeeze money from others. The fact that this has even been proposed is a testament to the fact that corruption oozes into every area of our government.