There is too much power in the hands of people with money. Internet is something meant for everyone. It is like a public park where everyone has equal use of it. There are many things the government and monopolized companies take and control over us, but the internet is the last straw. I found the love of my life over the internet. What if my internet were to be slowed down because of some Jack off fucking up the neutral playing ground causing me to never have met him. My brother is a big gamer and my best friend. She met her current fiance' over an online game. Those games become slow and bogged down already because of all the players, we don't need anything else bogging it down. Life sucks donkey balls for alot of people. We work our asses off to be stuck in the same shitty boring town for our whole lives and watch as shit stains with connections whom didn't do a lick of hard work drive around in sports cars. The internet, youtube, facebook, online games... for many of us, it's what keeps us from going into depression. It's what connects us to things bigger then pretending to be happy serving undeserving ungrateful disrespectful ass wipes for 8 to 16 hours a day. The least we all deserve is come home, sit on our exhausted asses, pretend our lives are more then a bucket of lies and shit, and watch some cat videos on youtube at a speed we deserve!!! No one should dare to fiddle with our 'escape the world' time or for time for those to actually shine on the internet, amazing singers, homemade films, ect... People who watch cable don't need special service, their shit works wonderfully, they have more channels then they know what to do with and I've never had a problem with watching a movie. There is no good reason to fuck with what is rightfully everyones, just to make what is already great not much grater, because lets be honest here... people with cable don't give a rats ass as long as they can watch a movie- and they can, they don't care if it takes half a second more to change a screen, fuck they wont even notice just as long as the movie plays. So leave everything alone, STOP BEING GREETING, UNGRATEFUL, ROTTEN HEARTED, INCONSIDERATE, LIMP DICKED, PARTY POOPING CUNTS!!!!!!! We are people too and I have more balls and more honor in my pussy then you do in your whole being. You wouldn't last a day in my shoes without a complaint. And by you I mean the head of the cable company and all the other fuckers that think like him. Leave us with our internet the way it is or youâ€, -â€, ¢I I have one hell of pissed off country.
