

7521281664.txt

The internet is and always will be a blank canvas for the masses. No one entity, be it the Federal Government or any corporation, should be able to restrict or infringe on the the people's right to use the internet. I support Net Neutrality and oppose any restrictions, sanctions, laws or executive order that hinders or infringes on the neutrality of the Internet.