

7521287274.txt

I support net neutrality. Please do not give cable companies the ability to purchase faster tiers of service. The Internet is too important to allow special interests to gain advantage. It is the place where the American Dream has been happening for almost 20 years. Please preserve its level playing field