

7521291856.txt

The proposed rules are anti-democratic and amount to giving away a public asset to the private sector, thus allowing a couple major corporations to control content and accessibility in accordance with their own political agendas and profit goals. This set-up does not serve the American people, but rather is a capitulation or responsibility on the part of the FCC. Do your job and ensure net neutrality, Reject the current proposed rules.