

7521294411.txt

I oppose RM-11708, as it is presently proposed, DIGITAL communication forms like WINLINK. WINLINK forms of communications should have only an allotted specific spectrum space much if not exactly as we now share with CW and SSB portions of the various bands. Allocated band space works for all of us as users, as or if the need for more DIGITAL band space grows, it can be revisited and more band space allocated, subject to demands.

respectfully: Herschel McCullough W5MC amateur radio operator 54 years