

7521302116.txt

Access to information is the core of our democratic system of governance. No website should be given preference over any other.

How could small businesses compete?

How could minority opinions in politics get a fair hearing?

Equal access is imperative.