

7521302275.txt

Our legislators need to realize that they need to stop throwing the baby out with the bathwater. Big money will lobby to kill any idea that creates an even playing field to gain revenue streams. Our legislators need to recognize that they should be representing the majority. Adjusting laws is one thing but throwing a good idea out completely and leaving us in harms way is another.