

7521308853.txt

I am disabled and on a fixed income. My choices for internet service are already limited and too expensive. I feel that internet service providers should be regulated just like the telephone giants.