

7521312180.txt

I hope that the FCC takes a stand against the continued handover of public access to our treasured resources to the same highest bidders.

How can we pretend to function as a democracy if private money shapes our every click?