

7521312411.txt

Keep net neutrality. There's no reason to trust any of the major corporations that stand to profit off of controlling broadband service speeds per users who have the money to pay for faster rates. Keep it equal.