

To the FCC:

I am strongly against a multi-tiered internet, as championed by the small handful of pseudo-monopolistic cable companies. I am against your organization which is a branch of the federal government being overseen by a lobbyist for these companies. It is a clear misuse of power to preempt the rights of the people in favor of the wealthy and powerful. How dare you entertain the idea.

Morgan Roussel