

7521315892.txt

Limiting your citizens for the interests of lobbyists is not in your or the country's best interest. Innovation is what makes this country great, and the internet is a medium for us to do that. A pay-off now by cable lobbyists who want to maximize profits is not worth no longer living in the greatest country in the world for generations to come.