

6/16/2014

Dear FCC Chairman,

I am concerned with the proposed merger of Time Warner cable and Comcast Communications. Comcast already has far too much power in this country and is using that power and lobby to suffocate American progress in developing not only technology in creating more powerful internet connectivity speed, but as a direct result, every other piece of advancement that is reliant on internet speeds.

They already enjoy monopolies in most locales and this will only remove choice even further.

Keith Rische