I refer you to the John Oliver video that caused so many viewers to come here and comment that it crashed your website. A free and open internet, wherein all data is treated equally regardless of source or destination, is something that we, the American People, require from you. Chairman Wheeler, we know that you are part of the revolving-door corruption that is plaguing our government and that you are going to destroy net neutrality if you can. We will apply all applicable pressure to make sure that does not happen. And we will not let you get away with it if you do it anyway.
