

7521318148.txt

I am strongly in favor of making the internet a public utility, thus saving net neutrality. Do not make it any easier for big money and big corporations to own the public. The people are the nation, not the corporations.