

7521318160.txt

Please keep the internet open and free. There should be no "hyperspeed" lane. Internet providers should be treated as utilities.

How can a government agency do something that a majority of their citizens oppose? How is this effective government? You are ethically and morally responsible for the future, do not forget this. The FCC represents the peoples interests in public communication.