

7521318193.txt

The internet was created with public funds and belongs equally to all of us. There is no justifiable reason for some corporations to be able to pay for better internet speeds and capacity than the public at large. Net neutrality means NEUTRAL, i.e. the same for everyone. If you allow Comcast and Time Warner to roll over the FCC, then there is no reason to have an FCC and it should be abolished. Then, money will be the only regulator.