

7521328370.txt

I demand true net neutrality because the President promised he would support it, because the internet should be equal for all.