

7521328825.txt

Do not let net neutrality end. Do not let the cable companies offer tiered services that reduces speeds for consumers and stifle innovation.

The cable companies need to be regulated as utilities as there us hardly any competition. As such they are monopolies and need to be converted too utilities to protect the public from price gouging. Do not hurt our future generations by allowing companies to limit information.