

7521328904.txt

The people of the US have spoken and it is obvious that we do not want the internet to have a "fast lane" so companies like Comcast and Verizon can make more money. I think the $190/month more than covers their expenses I occur. Enough is enough and the public is reaching out for help.