

7521329674.txt

I find it unconscionable that net neutrality would be allowed to be undermined. There is a point where unfettered free market values stand in opposition to American ideals and this is that very point.

Your job as the FCC, as I see it, is to fight tooth and nail against the undermining of the most democratic innovation in human history and future generations will remember whether you did.

Please stop Verizon & others from subverting net neutrality.
Thank you.