

7521329804.txt

I strongly oppose the Comcast/Time Warner merger because it would reduce competition and increase Comcast's power. Comcast's CEO testified that Time Warner isn't in any market that Comcast is in. This means that Comcast's market share would increase by the amount of market share Time Warner has. Time Warner and Comcast are rated as being among the worst service providers. Don't reduce competition by allowing these two organizations to join forces.