

7521330756.txt

I had previously commented on the petition that I approved, but after having done further research on the proposal I have decided that I am totally against it due to it endangering the current spectrum set aside for CW (Morse code) operations. There is nothing wrong with the status quo as far as digital mode operations in the amateur radio service!