

7521332060.txt

Voting against net neutrality would be another sign that our government is nothing but a shell for large corporations. Do what's right for the American voters and vote down these new regulations to keep net neutrality alive.