

7521333380.txt

Net neutrality should be preserved. I am against the proposed changes that would allow companies like Comcast, Time Warner and Verizon to change that principle to the detriment of everyone else, for their own profit.