

7521333703.txt

I can't understand how this can even be considered. Have some morals, and quit letting corporate interests drive the creation of policies that negatively effect all citizens of this country. The cable companies are already unjustly-legalized monopolies. Isn't that enough?