

7521333771.txt

Keep net neutrality, don't further empower Comcast and other companies that will inhibit access to information providers to the internet. The "web" is a vital instrument in American democracy, don't fix something that isn't broken by interfering with its current structure.