

7521335711.txt

RM-11708 is a very bad idea. There are already too many wideband automated stations "playing at" being "public services" which in fact are interfering with many much narrower modes engaged in live one-on-one communications. Once again the person with a big ego and a big wallet will drive the rest off the air while he/she is not even present at the controls!