

7521337821.txt

It is a shame and a disgrace that everyday our country is moving further and further away from it's traditional morals and values. RFD-TV and rural programming embody those values and principles that my family and I hold dear to our heart. It would pain us dearly to see wonderful family programming lost. We want to take a moment to emphasize the importance of RFD-TV and rural programming in a society that needs good wholesome family entertainment more than ever before.