

7521337947.txt

This is regards to losing the RFD-TV channel on Direct tv. I feel this channel is of vital importance to the country and our family values. There are very few family programming on any more. Most I can not let little ones watch. Most are not even fit for adults. RFD is one of the few that is family oriented and a family can watch together. This program is very informative to the American farmer and the family.