

7521338421.txt

This is opening the door to the possibility of cancellation of my favorite broadcast network RFD-TV which is viable to my country roots delivering good, clean and wholesome broadcasting into my home through the DirecTV service provider. Transfer of license between AT&T and DirecTV will in my opinion open the door to cancellation of this type of programming and allow a more liberal urban type programming to replace it.