

7521342481.txt

Maintain free and open access to the internet, without discriminatory pricing policies that will only hurt small business owners like me. If we all have to take the same highway to get to work, why would you treat different segments of taxpayers differently. Net Neutrality is important