

7521342592.txt

Paying for an internet traffic to be neutral , is NOT the same as a neutral internet.

Internet users paying more to ensure equality of net traffic is nothing more than corporate discrimination and does not support innovation or the freedom of speech among internet users.