

7521345966.txt

Being in the minority of people having careers in the USA ,we farmers, who feed the world need pertinent information to our businesses such as RFD provides us . I realize the urban young don't appreciate what we do and they have the spending power that media companies are courting but other minorities are catered to. we just want information