

Comment on RM-11708

Please do not implement RM-11708 as it represents a further encroachment on amateur radio CW/Data sub-bands. This proposed FCC rule that would allow digital communication modes 2.8 kHz in width to be used robotically in the CW and data sub-bands without regard to interference. Bandplans alone are not enough to protect existing human users against interference from automatically controlled systems.