

7521346527.txt

Universal Portability & Universal Service Funds need to be discontinued as the amounts accumulated have grown out of reason. Communication providers keep passing these taxes on to customers & the FCC needs to put STOP to this & it seems to be a never ending saga. It is nothing more than an indirect form of taxation on the American public.