

7521346588.txt

The cable companies are already making money off of my monthly cable bill. Then they get more money selling commercials which interrupt what I'm watching. Now they want more money for what I view and do on the NET. Enough please.