

7521346656.txt

I urge you to maintain full net neutrality. Small companies will not be able to compete against big companies, and innovation will be squelched. I've already noticed that my cable company is interfering with streaming speeds on Netflix and Aereo. Many of us are aware that Mr. Wheeler and other top officials in the FCC have former ties to Comcast. Please protect consumers and the public by maintaining full net neutrality. The giants in the business should become utilities.