

7521346881.txt

Net Neutrality is vital to all as it allows equal and fair access to every individual, allowing them to make their own choices on what they see and do as opposed to being forced to look at other options due to a deliberately slower connections.