

7521349286.txt

Keep Net Neutrality. Canada needs it too. Don't let the cable companies dictate what we watch. Canada has fast Rogers and slow Bell with some other companies in-between. Without neutrality we don't have the competition to maintain fairness. It is not just America, think of the example you will give (and the actions that come with it) to the rest of the world.