

7521349505.txt

Please maintain net neutrality. There is too many things in this country that are twisted to appear positive for the average american. This can't be twisted. By eliminating net neutrality, you will have succeeded in eliminating the only remaining level playing field for content providers.

Big Business isn't threatened by net neutrality; by giving into Big Business you, the FCC, threaten the little tangible freedom we have left.