

7521350235.txt

I oppose the FCC's effort to establish a two tiered internet system that will either seriously hobble or eliminate outright many websites, especially small political websites operating on shoestring budgets. Consumers will pay more to receive sanitized and highly commercialized corporate content. They will face frustrating load times when they decide to visit smaller websites containing multimedia content. Please leave the internet alone!