

7521355704.txt

We did subscribe to Time Warner and could not get the RFD channel and switched to AT&T and now enjoy the RFD programming. I especially enjoy the Horse programming and the music. I will switch to what ever outlet will provide the RFD channel. Our Western Heritage and Rural history are vital to understanding American History. The Horse Industry is huge even in the Urban areas and coverage and education toward that end should never be excluded from our cable and satellite coverage.