

7521357386.txt

Protect the citizens whose taxes pay your salaries! Prohibit the cable industry's preferential pay-for-speed protection racket that would grossly limit competition in that market space among providers of internet content and services, to the detriment of all consumers of those services and content. "Consumers" -- what corporations and, sadly, our own government consider its voting citizens!