

7521361087.txt

Simple. The defeat of the online free market. Handing a monopoly to companies not elected or governed by the American people. Something like this is happening in China, I think. Just ISP's instead of an oppressive government. FCC, please, change your current rules and instead reclassify ISPs as common carriers. I am in support of real net neutrality. Thank you.